

The Berks County Conservation District (BCCD) has an opportunity for employment as an Urban Resource Conservationist

Qualified candidates should possess a Bachelor's degree in Environmental Sciences, Planning, Resource Management or other related subjects; Two years or more of experience is preferred in Erosion and Sediment plan preparation and/or review.

Individual must be energetic, professional and knowledgeable of Conservation District Law, mission and goals, and have the ability to perform field work and engage construction contractors on a daily basis.

Job Description: Processing of NPDES Permits, reviewing project erosion and sediment control plans as per the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) guidelines. BCCD currently has delegation agreements with DEP for Chapter 102, PCSM, Chapter 105 and inspecting earth disturbance activities for compliance.

Salary will be based on experience.

To apply, submit resume to Tammy Bartsch at Tammy.Bartsch@berkscd.com; deadline for submission is March 3, 2017, no phone calls please.