

ACT 48- BACKYARD AND SCHOOLYARD
CONSERVATION
Session 2: Composting
Teachers listen to J. Drabic, Penn State
Extension-Master Gardeners, talk about the basics of composting.

ACT 48- BACKYARD AND SCHOOLYARD
CONSERVATION
Session 2: Composting
Three compost bins were given away to the teachers after the composting workshop. Below are our winners!

ACT 48- BACKYARD AND SCHOOLYARD
CONSERVATION

Session 3: Rain Barrel

Teachers were able to construct and take home a rain barrel with the help of local Penn State Extension- Master Watershed Stewards.

ACT 48- BACKYARD AND SCHOOLYARD
CONSERVATION

Session 3: Rain Barrel

Teachers working together to create their rain barrels!

ACT 48- BACKYARD AND SCHOOLYARD CONSERVATION
 Session 3: Rain Barrels
 NCCD Watershed Specialist, Nate Pritchard working to assist a teacher in completing her barrel.

ACT 48- BACKYARD AND SCHOOLYARD CONSERVATION
 Session 1: Stormwater-Nonpoint Source
 DEP's Robert Jevin works to educate the teachers on Infiltration Basins at Northampton County Community College.

ACT 48- BACKYARD AND SCHOOLYARD CONSERVATION

Session 1: Stormwater- Nonpoint Source
NCCD Conservation Specialist, James Lawrence, teaches the teachers about retrofitting a Detention Basin to improve water quality.

ACT 48- BACKYARD AND SCHOOLYARD CONSERVATION

Session 1: Stormwater- Nonpoint Source
Teachers explore the Bushkill Township Government Center to learn about the benefits of rain gardens.

