

2017 Contractors Workshop

The Susquehanna County Conservation District hosted its annual Contractor Workshop on March 23rd at the Montrose Bible Conference. Over 70 people came to attend the workshop, speakers included: Mike Sames (DEP) who gave a presentation on Water Obstruction and Encroachment Permits for Culvert and Bridge Installation, Jim Garner (SCCD) who presented on Understanding NPDES Permit Conditions, Stephen Watson (Cabot Oil and Gas) presented on Work Place Safety & Justin Challenger (State Conservation Commission) who spoke the positive biological impacts that the Dirt and Gravel Road program.

Contractors speaking to vendors at the before the workshop.

Susquehanna County Conservation District vendor table.

Morrissey Insurance vendor table.

USDA/NRCS vendor table.

Glenn Ebby, with JHA Companies, speaking with local contractors about projects in our area.

Contractors listening to a presentation on Biological Impacts of streams and the Dirt and Gravel Road Program.