

Allegheny Completes Multi-Functional Riparian Forest Buffers

Allegheny County Conservation District planted 2.7-acres of multi-functional riparian forest buffer at Round Hill Park in Allegheny County. The project cost $17,832.00 and was paid for through PACD's multi-functional buffer sub-grant program: https://pacd.org/?page\_id=17536

Before

After – during planting

Allegheny County Conservation District planted 0.3-acres of multi-functional riparian forest buffer along Copper Creek in Allegheny County. The project cost $3,215 and was paid for through PACD's multi-functional buffer sub-grant program: https://pacd.org/?page\_id=17536

Before

After

