Amy Brown Named Executive Director of the Pennsylvania Association of Conservation Districts

(Harrisburg, PA) - The Pennsylvania Association of Conservation Districts (PACD) is pleased to announce the appointment of Amy Brown as Executive Director, effective September 3, 2025.

Brown has served as Acting Executive Director since March 2025, leading the association through a period of transition and growth. With more than 17 years working in conservation, nonprofit management, and partnership development, she brings a deep commitment to advancing PACD's mission of supporting Pennsylvania's 66 county conservation districts.

"PACD plays a vital role in supporting Pennsylvania's 66 conservation districts," said Brown. "I am honored to continue working alongside our dedicated conservation districts and partners to strengthen conservation programs and deliver meaningful results for Pennsylvania's natural resources."

As Executive Director, she will oversee statewide programs, advocate for conservation districts, and focus on partnerships that enhance conservation district initiatives.

"Amy has proven to be a strong, steady leader with the vision and collaborative spirit needed to
