

WATERSHED RESOURCE TECHNICIAN

Lancaster County Conservation District

The applicant for this position is expected to have excellent project management skills and provide in-the-field assistance to the District's Watershed Specialist with implementing a variety of watershed related installation and maintenance projects, water quality monitoring, volunteer liaison and stream restoration assistance to contractors, throughout Lancaster County. A combination of 6 years of schooling and on the job experience is required.

Starting Salary: $34,500 - $39,000 Commensurate with experience and excellent benefits package. Plus a $2,400 signing bonus.

District application, cover letter, resume, official college transcript, and 3 references (who are not relatives or previous employers) must be received by June 21, 2019. A complete job description and application forms available at: www.lancasterconservation.org.

Personnel Committee
Lancaster County Conservation District
1383 Arcadia Road, Room 200
Lancaster PA 17601

EOE