

NO MOW ZONE

These plants stop pollution from entering the stream, and their roots hold the soil in place. They form a buffer that provides wildlife habitat and improves water quality.

Don't mow, let it grow!