

Seeking qualified applicants for the position of:
Ag Specialist

Full-time position with benefits, responsible for administering PA's Nutrient Management and Manure Management Program in Fulton County. Specialist will also visit farms to ensure compliance with state environmental regulations and manage the District's No-Till Drill Rental Program.

A Bachelor's Degree in Environmental Science, Natural Sciences, Agriculture, or other related subject is required. An equivalent combination of education and experience may qualify at the discretion of the Conservation District.

This position requires skill in working with the public, strong verbal and written communications, proficiency in math, attention to details, and good computer skills.

Contact the Fulton County Conservation District at 717-325-6088 for an application and job description.

Deadline for application and resume submission is February 21, 2020. Submit to: Seleen Shives, FCCD, 216 N. 2nd St., Suite 15, McConnellsburg, PA 17233.

FCCD is an Equal Opportunity Employer